Located on a privileged and magical location in the East Cape, south of the Baja California peninsula, Punta Pescadero Paradise enjoys the exclusiveness and luxury, in a private ambiance, perfect for resting and admiration of nature's unparalleled beauty.

Only 60 miles north from San Jose del Cabo international airport you will encounter the perfect marriage between desert and sea, an ideal balance for self-indulgence and unforgettable moments.

The terraces of our 24 modern, spacious and fully equipped Villas-Suites, will be your windows to commanding views to the Sea of Cortes; tranquility and silence will be your host.

In the morning a magical sunrise will greet you from your balcony; by night the sky illuminates itself with constellations and a romantic moonlight while you delight yourself with an exquisite dinner. Our chef will pamper you with your catch of the day or any great tasting dish from our menu.

By day the turquoise and deep blue color of the sea create unique sights, while the mild breaking of the waves brings music to your ears.

Listen to the birds sing, palms dance and the whispering of the wind while you lay submerged in a pool with infinite view. This is the essence of Punta Pescadera Paradise, a unique place in the world where you will find peace and tranquility.

Our 340 sunny days are a unique playground for outdoor activities in which you can enjoy nature at its best, strolling on our 2.2 mile beach, snorkeling, scuba diving, kayaking or visiting near by cave paintings.

Sport fishing is a privilege in this area, considered one of the richest fishing grounds and the reason of this landmarks name; Punta Pescadero means fishing point in Spanish. A day out on a cruiser or panga is liberty at its best.
